

GROWING CORBY

CORBY BUSINESS GROWTH PROGRAMME

More than 50 businesses awarded £2,500 Growing Corby grant

Golden Celebration for Growing Corby

Growing Corby has recently awarded its 50th grant to commercial property agents, Potter Learoyd who received a grant worth £2,500. The grant will be used to fulfil their target of increasing their reach of Corby's 700 commercial property occupiers from 20% to 100% over the next year.

Find out how your business could be next to receive a grant. They are going quickly so download your application form today.

Read More

Actress launches Corby drama school with a difference

Children in Corby now have a unique opportunity to not just learn drama but to give back to local community groups, thanks to a new drama school set up by actress Ellen Gayle-Harewood, with support from Growing Corby.

Aruna Bhagwan, a Social Enterprise Advisor for Enterprise Solutions Northampton, has offered Mariposa Drama support through one to one meetings and group workshops. Your social enterprise could also be supported.

Read More

New innovation workshops for 2015 launched

Growing Corby are pleased to announce the next in the series of innovation and creativity workshops which will be commencing in 2015. These workshops will tackle and raise awareness for topics such as, keys to successfully funding applications, marketing and market research and new product development.

The workshops will each run from 9am until 4.30pm and will include a free networking lunch. Spaces at these workshops are limited so register today to avoid disappointment.

Read More

Your invite to Small Business Saturday

On Saturday 6th December, all businesses in Corby and the surrounding areas are invited to come and take part in a Small Business Saturday event taking place at the Corby Cube. The event will be running between 9am and 12pm and will coincide with Corby's Christmas Market.

The event will feature speeches, a presentation from our Keynote speaker, Mike Southon (Author of the Beermat Entrepreneur), as well as an exhibition of business support services. Register your place today!

Read More

